

Happy Republic Day

On the occasion of the 76th Republic Day of India, I extend warm and most heartfelt greetings to all members of Indian diaspora and to all our esteemed friends in New Zealand.

This day, as we celebrate India's rich legacy of democracy, unity in diversity and the philosophy of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam". I take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude to all the members of the Indian community.

Your tireless dedication, hard work, and unwavering commitment have played a pivotal role in enriching the bonds between India and New Zealand. This is visible in strengthening of our partnership across diverse fields like business, IT including agriculture technology, education, culture and tourism.

In particular, I would like to acknowledge the important role of Indian diaspora in deepening our bilateral ties. Your efforts, both individually and collectively, continue to inspire and enhance the friendship between our peoples. Once again, I convey my warm wishes for a joyful Republic Day of India to each and every one of you.

Jai Hind!
